

Call for Trainers for Rescue and Relief Training
For Village Disaster Management Committee (VDMC) Members
Kaiserganj Block, Bahraich District, Uttar Pradesh

Sahbhagi Shikshan Kendra (SSK) invites applications from qualified and experienced trainers to conduct a Rescue and Relief Training for Village Disaster Management Committee (VDMC) members in 10 selected villages of Kaiserganj Block, Bahraich District.

SSK is implementing the project “Improving Health and Strengthening the Resilience of Vulnerable Groups in Bahraich District, Uttar Pradesh, India” (Project ID: MI PN 2675-14, Donor ID: PN 7940). The project aims to strengthen disaster resilience, preparedness, and response systems among vulnerable families in the project villages.

Training Objective:

The objective of this training is to strengthen the capacity of VDMC members in effective disaster preparedness, rescue, and relief operations at the village level. The training will enable committee members to clearly understand their roles and responsibilities, respond promptly during emergencies, coordinate with local authorities, and ensure community safety during disaster situations.

Skills and Experience Required:

- Minimum 2–3 years of experience in conducting disaster management, rescue, and relief trainings.
- Strong knowledge of disaster risk reduction (DRR), emergency response protocols, first aid, evacuation planning, and relief coordination.
- Familiarity with government disaster management frameworks and village-level disaster planning processes.
- Experience in conducting participatory and practical training sessions.
- Good communication skills in Hindi and prior experience working with rural communities.

Duration:

The training will be conducted as one-day training for each of the 10 selected villages of Kaiserganj Block.

Application Process:
